

Course title	INSTITUTIONS OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW: COMPARATIVE APPROACH
Lecturer	dr hab. Piotr Szymaniec, prof. PWSZ w Wałbrzychu
Hours	15
ECTS	3
Semester	Spring
Content	Description of the course – 1) The notion of public administration, 2) Administrative law: European and U.S. approach, 3) Centralization and decentralization, 4) Local autonomy, 5) Administrative decision, 6) Administrative courts, 7) Outline of public administration in Poland
Prerequisites	General English B1 – B2
Learning outcomes	Knowledge: The student 1. knows the place of public administration in various legal systems, especially in unitary and federal states; 2. knows the ways of dealing with administrative matters in various legal systems. Skills: The student 1. analyzes administrative law institutions belonging to different legal systems; 2. presents differences and similarities in the formation of administrative law institutions in various legal cultures. Competences: The student is prepared for the practical application of the basic values underlying Western legal cultures.
Selected literature	Mandatory (selected chapters): Susan Rose-Ackerman, Peter L. Lindseth (eds.), Comparative Administrative Law, Cheltenham: Edward Elgar, 2010. Jolanta Jabłońska-Bonca, Wprowadzenie do prawa. Introduction to Law, 2nd edition, Warszawa: Lexis Nexis, 2015. Additional: Ducó Bannink, Ringo Ossewaarde, 'Decentralization: New Modes of Governance and Administrative Responsibility,' Administration & Society (2012) 44 (5), pp. 595–624. Zuzana Kurucová, Andrea Demovičová, Introduction to the U.S. Law, Bratislava: Wolters Kluwer, 2017 (selected chapters).
Teaching tools/methods	On-site lectures
Form of examination	Oral examination