SAY HI TO A NEW WORK OPPORTUNITY

K N O W A B L E

DATA CONTRACT ANALYST

Knowable is the market leader in contract management.
We give corporate clients revolutionary visibility into the contracts that govern their business.
We convert dense legal prose into structured data that can be aggregated and analyzed from the enterprise portfolio level down to the individual contract. We work to make sure that everything in every corporation will be knowable.
Knowable has been part of LexisNexis Legal & Professional since August 2019.

If you are studying law or have just graduated and have a strong command of English language skills – this opportunity is right for you!

We are also very interested in applicants who can speak other languages, especially European.
